Fraser Health opens five large COVID-19 immunization clinics with four more to come

SURREY – To support our ongoing COVID-19 vaccine rollout, Fraser Health has opened five mass COVID-19 immunization clinics in Chilliwack, Cloverdale, South Surrey, Delta North and Coquitlam that are now available to book appointments beginning March 29, except for Delta North which is available today.

These new clinics will support our current immunization plans and will remain open through phases three and four as we work to immunize our communities over the coming months. Fraser Health is grateful for the partnerships with municipalities, business leaders, community organizations and Divisions of Family Practice.

The new clinics are located at:

- Chilliwack: Chilliwack Mall (supported by the Municipality and the Fraser Valley Bandits)
- Cloverdale: Cloverdale Recreation Centre (supported by the Municipality and Adecco)
- South Surrey: South Surrey Recreation Centre (supported by the Municipality and Adecco)
- Coquitlam: Coquitlam Poirier Forum (supported by the Municipality and Air Canada)
- Delta (North): North Delta Recreation Centre (supported by the Municipality and Ceres Terminals Canada)

Planning is underway to open additional clinics:

- Langley: Langley Events Centre (supported by the Municipality and the Vancouver Giants)
- Burnaby: Fortius (supported by the Municipality and Ceres Terminals Canada)
- New Westminster: Anvil Centre (supported by the Municipality and Ceres Terminals Canada)
- Surrey: Guildford Recreation Centre (supported by the Municipality and Westjet)

For a full listing of our current clinics as they come online, please visit:

www.fraserhealth.ca/vaccineclinic. As these clinics come online, some of our previous clinics will either close or be repurposed.

We would like to thank our municipalities, community organizations, business leaders, Divisions of Family Practice, and staff and medical staff for their continued dedication in supporting Fraser Health's ongoing response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

People who are eligible to book their COVID-19 vaccine can do so online by using our 24/7 booking tool or by calling Fraser Health's COVID-19 Immunization Booking phone line at 1-855-755-2455. Translation services are available to those who need them at the call centre and at our immunization clinics.
